

Book now for your special event!

chicago children's theatre

The stories of Helen Beatrix Potter, featuring iconic animal characters like Peter Rabbit and celebrating British country life, are told through a series of mechanical suitcase sculptures, which invite visitors to pull levers and turn cranks, revealing images that surprise and delight. This interactive, four-dimensional winter fairy tale promises to be a popular new entertainment option for Chicago-area families this holiday season. Ideal for ages 3 and up.

Openings between November 27th and December 31st

Additional dates available upon request.

Special Event Requirements:

- A performance space of at least 400 square feet (shape and set up flexible)
- Load in through an ADA doorway with access to elevator or ramp (no steps)
- Parking for van to be provided by venue / booking client
- At least 25 chairs supplied by venue / booking client
- Access to traditional power source for sound equipment
- Small holding room near performance space for performers

Pricing:

- One performance booking starts at $1,500. Additional performances, up to 3 total per day, can be added for an additional $500 per performance
- Rates can be provided for multiple days
- Performance times and dates subject to approval

For more information or to inquire about booking, please contact events@chicagochildrenstheatre.org or 773-227-0180